Activities

- The 2010 U.S. Census (which takes place every 10 years) will begin April 1st 2010. CSCCA will assist in filling out population statistic form. Please spread the words to each other's so as to raise the status and benefits for the Chinese people. This will not involve getting personal information; this involves counting the number of people in each household only.
- Thanks to all of the volunteers and performers on our 2010 Chinese Lunar New Year celebration, the event was a great success. We have so many wonderful indoor and outdoor activities, ranging from the stage design, game developments, different kinds of booths and exhibitions, many delicious food as well as the gorgeous performances attract the most spectacular crowd that we ever had in similar events. This success helps us to unfold and open up more opportunities to try new things in the future.

- Let's give a great ovation to the leaders of the Coral Springs Lion Dance team, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny & Jennifer Kung who have given another spectacular performance in Pembroke Pine Library's New Year celebration on Feb. 24, 2010. They have done a great job not only adding glory to our Chinese culture but also have put forward the Chinese national diplomacy.
